

50
YEARS

ROAD SCHOLAR®

SCAN TO SEE
ALL OF OUR
FREE ONLINE LECTURES.

LEARN WITH ROAD SCHOLAR ONLINE

Our free online lectures ensure that learning is available for every lifelong learner! Experience Road Scholar's expert instruction during a 45- to 60-minute online lecture, all from the comfort of your home.

JULY

Bastille Day — The Spark of Revolution

Explore the true meaning of La fête nationale française — Bastille Day — from the storming of the Bastille in 1789 to shaping modern France.

AUGUST

Sacred Architecture of Peru — Pyramids & Temples of the Coast

From the monumental adobe pyramids of the Moche to the sprawling temple complexes of the city of Lima, discover the architectural ingenuity and spiritual significance behind Peru's sacred pyramids.

OCTOBER

Evalyn Walsh McLean & the Curse of the Hope Diamond

Explore the origins of the Hope Diamond's supposed curse, and its connection to the extravagant and reckless lifestyle of its larger-than-life owner, Evalyn Walsh McLean.

SEPTEMBER

King Tut's Secrets — Uncovering New Clues Through Technology

Join ancient civilization expert and National Geographic photographer Kenneth Garrett as he explores the cutting-edge technology that continues to reveal new insights into King Tut's world.

NOVEMBER

GIs in Britain — The British People & American Troops in WWII

Examine how the presence of American GIs reshaped British communities — from friendships and alliances to moments of friction — during World War II.

DECEMBER

Zoroastrianism

Join a religion scholar as he explores Zoroastrianism, an ancient Persian religion that, though with few followers today, birthed ideas that have profoundly impacted the Abrahamic traditions.

To sign up or learn more about our free lectures,
visit www.roadscholar.org/lecture25

